Furthermore, any resale of the New Options in the Provinces must be made in accordance with applicable Canadian securities laws. While such resale restrictions generally do not apply to a first trade in a security of a foreign, non-Canadian reporting issuer that is made through an exchange or market outside Canada, Canadian purchasers should seek legal advice prior to any resale of the New Options.

Statutory rights of action for damages and rescission. Securities legislation in certain Provinces may provide a purchaser with remedies for rescission or damages if an offering memorandum contains a misrepresentation, provided the remedies for rescission or damages are exercised by the purchaser within the time limit prescribed by the securities legislation of the purchaser's Province. A purchaser may refer to any applicable provision of the securities legislation of the purchaser's Province for particulars of these rights or consult with a legal adviser.

Certain Canadian income tax considerations. Prospective purchasers of the New Options should consult their own tax adviser with respect to any taxes payable in connection with the acquisition, holding or disposition of the New Options as there are Canadian tax implications for investors in the Provinces.

2 Purpose and Effect of the Offers

2.1 Purpose of the Offers

The primary purposes of the Offers are:

- (a) in relation to the Placement Options Offer and SPP Options Offer, to reward Placement Participants and SPP Participants for supporting the Company;
- (b) in relation to the Piggyback Options Offer only, to incentivise Eligible Optionholders to exercise their Attaching Options; and
- (c) to provide the Company with a potential source of additional capital if the Attaching Options and/or the Piggyback Options are exercised.

See Section 1.1 for further information regarding the Offers.

An additional purpose of the Offers is to remove any trading restrictions attaching to Shares issued on exercise of the Attaching Options and Piggyback Options issued under the Offers, given that Attaching Options and Piggyback Options are being issued with disclosure under this Prospectus.

No funds will be raised directly under the Offers as the Attaching Options and Piggyback Options are being issued for nil consideration.

However, if all Attaching Options offered under the Offers are exercised, the Company will receive approximately $15.4 million in aggregate, by virtue of payment of the exercise price payable on the Attaching Options but which excludes payment of any associated expenses.

Further, if all the Piggyback Options offered under the Offers and issued upon the exercise of the Attaching Options, are exercised, the Company will receive approximately $17.3 million in aggregate, by virtue of payment of the exercise price payable on the Piggyback Options and similarly, but which excludes payment of any associated expenses.

The Company intends to apply any funds raised upon the exercise of any New Options for the purposes described in Section 1.1.

The above is a statement of the Company's current intentions as at the date of this Prospectus and the Board reserves the right to alter the way funds are applied on this basis.

2.2 Effect of the Offers on capital structure

The effect of the Offers on the capital structure on the Company, assuming the maximum number of New Options are issued, is as follows:

	Shares	Options	Performance Rights
Securities on issue as at the date of this Prospectus	510,421,899 ⁽¹⁾	14,793,331 ⁽²⁾	500,000 ⁽³⁾
Placement Options Offer	-	17,682,936 ⁽⁴⁾	-
SPP Options Offer	-	8,869,657 ⁽⁵⁾	-
Piggyback Options Offer	-	26,552,593 ⁽⁶⁾
Balance after the Offers	510,421,899	67,898,517	500,000

Notes:

1. Including 35,365,860 Placement Shares issued under the Placement and 17,738,987 SPP Shares issued under the SPP.

 - (c) 4,460,000 Options (TLGAC) exercisable at $1.00 each on or before 21 November 2028.
3. Performance Rights comprising 500,000 Performance Rights (TLGAG).
4. Placement Options with an exercise price of $0.58 and expiring two years from the date of issue, which are convertible into a maximum of 17,682,936 Shares.
5. SPP Options with an exercise price of $0.58 and expiring two years from the date of issue, which are convertible into a maximum of 8,869,657 Shares.
6. Piggyback Options with an exercise price of $0.65 and expiring two years from the expiry date of the Attaching Options.

2.3 Effect of the financial position

The Attaching Options and Piggyback Options offered under the Offers will be issued for nil consideration. Accordingly, the Offers will not have any immediate material effect on the financial position of the Company.

However, funds will be raised if Attaching Options are exercised and Piggyback Options issued upon exercise of Attaching Options are exercised. If the maximum number of Attaching Options offered under the Placement Options Offer and SPP Options Offer are issued and they are all exercised (which is not certain), then the Company will receive approximately A$15.4 million by virtue of payment of the exercise price payable upon exercise of those Attaching Options.

Furthermore, if the maximum number of Piggyback Options are issued and they are all exercised (which is not certain), then the Company will receive approximately A$17.3 million by virtue of payment of the exercise price payable upon exercise of those Piggyback Options. There is no certainty as to if or when any Attaching Options issued under the Placement Options Offer and SPP Options Offer will be exercised. Furthermore, there is no certainty as to if or when any Piggyback Options issued (if any) will be exercised. The costs of the Offers will be met from using the funds raised under the Placement. Refer to Section 4.16 for further information regarding the estimated costs of the Offers.

2.4 Effect of the Offers on control of the Company

The Company is of the view that the Offers will not affect the control (as defined by section 50AA of the Corporations Act) of the Company. No new investor or existing Shareholder will have a voting power greater than 20% as a result of the completion of the Offers (refer to Section 4.10).

3 Risk Factors

The New Options offered under this Prospectus should be considered speculative because of the nature of the business activities of the Company and no assurances can be made that the Company's particular interests or projects will be successful. Potential investors should consider whether the New Options offered are a suitable investment having regard to their own personal investment objectives and financial circumstances and the risk factors detailed below.

This list is not exhaustive and potential investors should read this Prospectus in its entirety and if in any doubt consult their professional adviser before deciding whether to participate in the Offers.

3.1 Specific Risks Associated with the Company

Applicants should be aware of the risks specific to an investment in the Company, which may include, but are not limited to those risks detailed below:

(a) Operating and Budget Risks

The proposed activities, costs and use of the Company's cash resources are based on certain assumptions with respect to the method and timing of exploration, metallurgy and other technical tests, analysis and feasibility studies. By their nature, these estimates and assumptions are subject to significant uncertainties and, accordingly, the actual costs may materially differ from the Company's estimates and assumptions. Accordingly, no assurance can be given that the cost estimates and the underlying assumptions will be realised in practice, which may materially and adversely affect the Company's viability.

The proposed activities of the Company including economic studies are dependent on economic inputs from commodity prices, metallurgical tests, electrochemical testing and market tests of which there is no guarantee of positive economics. It is a risk that studies may not be completed or may be delayed indefinitely where key inputs show negative economic outcomes. No assurances can be given that the Company will achieve commercial viability through the successful exploration and/or mining and processing of its mineral interests. Until the Company is able to realise value from its projects, it is likely to incur ongoing operating losses.

Talga has successfully piloted core aspects of its production flow sheet. It continues to conduct value improvement refinements of its flow sheet at laboratory and pilot plant level working in conjunction with key (or preferred) OEM equipment suppliers and technology providers.

Investment in the Company should be considered in light of the risks, expenses and difficulties frequently encountered by companies at this stage of development, including factors such as design and construction of efficient mining and processing facilities within capital expenditure budgets.

With all mining operations there can be a level of uncertainty and, therefore, risk associated with operating parameters and costs. This is also true with the scaling up of processing technology tested in pilot conditions. The nature of the technology risk is the cost of developing an economically viable commercial operation and production facility.

The Company has and will continue to enter into various agreements for the Vittangi Anode Project. Risks associated with agreements include rising contract prices as well as disputes regarding variations, extensions of time and costs, and global events impacting contractual performance and liability, all of which may give rise to delays and/or increased costs.

Production guidance and targets are, as always, subject to assumptions and contingencies which are subject to change as operational performance and market conditions change or other unexpected events arise. Any production guidance is dependent on a number of factors including maintenance and operation of the mine and plant without material equipment failure, loss of continuity of experienced personnel and achievement of recovery rates from the resource. These risks are discussed in more detail elsewhere in this section.

(b) Additional Requirements for Capital

The Company's capital requirements depend on numerous factors. Depending on the Company's ability to generate income from its operations, the Company may seek to raise further funds through equity or debt financing, joint ventures, production sharing arrangements or other means. Failure to obtain sufficient financing for the Company's activities and future projects may result in delay and indefinite postponement of exploration, development or production on the Company's properties, or even loss of a property interest. There can be no assurance that additional finance will be available when needed or, if available, the terms of the financing might not be favourable to the Company and might involve substantial dilution to shareholders.

The Company announced the completion of the DFS for its Vittangi Anode Project in northern Sweden in July 2021 (and subsequent completion of Feed Study 15 April 2024). If the Company agrees on any near term future offtake arrangements, fast track commercial ramp up development may occur which will require additional funding to be obtained. Whilst the Company is in discussions with respect to offtake, there is no guarantee such discussions will result in binding agreements (see 'Offtake Arrangements risk' below).

The Company is reviewing its ramp-up plan for the Vittangi Anode Project and will continue to investigate ways to optimise the Company's pathway to full-scale production. The Company notes that whilst a strategic review is being undertaken in respect of the ramp-up plan and cost optimisation, any decision is subject to further work including funding and economic modelling to lower capital costs and final Board approval.

Whilst the Company's cash as at 31 Dec 2025 of ~$28.4million, coupled with the $7.3million funds raised under the SPP, will provide for on-going business activities, the Company will need to seek funding options to advance the Vittangi Anode Project. To date, the Company has announced that the European Investment Bank (EIB) board has approved €150 million senior debt funding to underpin the Project (ASX:TLG 20 June 2023). Following this approval, loan documentation is being agreed between EIB and the Company, including customary terms and conditions for a financing facility of this nature. While the Company will seek to expedite these negotiations, there can be no guarantee that they will result in a binding agreement.

Talga's Luleå Anode Refinery was also awarded a €70 million grant from the EU Innovation Fund (ASX:TLG 25 October 2024) under the IF23 call, with Talga successfully executing the grant agreement in March 2025 with the European Climate Infrastructure and Environment Executive Agency (CINEA), marking completion of the grant preparation phase.

Talga received SEK 82.6m or A$13.35m grant funds under the Swedish Energy Agency's Industrial Leap ("Industriklivet 1") program. (ASX:TLG 17/10/2025 and 20/11/2025). Talga has also applied for a 1.1 billion SEK (~A$180 million) grant under the Swedish Energy Agency's Industrial Leap ("Industriklivet 2") program, as part of a 3.1 billion SEK (~A$500 million) project to construct a 5,000 tonnes per annum (tpa) anode production facility at the Company's fully permitted site in Luleå, Sweden. The project represents Talga's "Industrial Leap" from its existing Electric Vehicle Anode (EVA) demonstration plant to commercial scale production of Talnode®-C and Talnode®-R sustainable graphite anode products. The 'Industriklivet 2' funding, if granted, is anticipated to be confirmed in the first quarter of CY2026 and follows Talga being awarded the 'Industriklivet 1' program grant.

This non-dilutive funding stack underscores the Company's focus and progress in de-risking its Vittangi Anode Project and advancing towards commercial production.

With the assistance of financial and transaction advisors BurnVoor, the Company will identify and evaluate potential outcomes which may emerge from ongoing project development partnership, customer and financing discussions with other European and international parties. Management has strategies to tailor budgeted cashflows based on future funding received. However, without regular income outside interest proceeds or assets sales, it will rely on continuing access to capital markets (including the exercise of unlisted Company options) to fund further development in Sweden, Germany and the UK.

More generally, the Company is continually assessing its 'all in' funding costs for development of the Vittangi Anode Project through to expected first production. There are a wide range of factors that have the potential to influence the Company's funding needs, a number of which are beyond the control of the Company. As a consequence, and to ensure that the Company is reacting appropriately to changing events, market conditions, and broader economic circumstances, the Company will continue to refine its funding needs on an ongoing basis and in real time. The Company remains committed to delivering the Vittangi Anode Project in a cost-effective manner, consistent with previously stated safety and schedule priorities, and will continue to apply prudent and efficient capital expenditure processes.

Further, the Company, in the ordinary course of its operations and developments, may be required to issue financial assurances, particularly insurances and bond/bank guarantee instruments to secure statutory and environmental performance undertakings and commercial arrangements. The Company's ability to provide such assurances is subject to external financial and credit market assessment, and its own financial position.

Loan agreements and other financing rearrangements such as debt facilities, convertible note issues and finance leases (and any related guarantee and security) that may be entered into by the Company may contain covenants, undertakings and other provisions which, if breached, may entitle lenders to accelerate repayment of loans and there is no assurance that the Company would be able to repay such loans in the event of an acceleration. Enforcement of any security granted by the Company or default under a finance lease could also result in the loss of assets.

If the Company is unable to obtain additional financing as needed, it may be required to reduce the scope of its operations and scale back its programs or enter into joint venture arrangements to reduce expenditure and this could have a material adverse effect on the Company's activities. Unfavourable market conditions may adversely affect the Company's ability to raise additional funding regardless of the Company's operating performance.

Both now and in the future, higher than expected inflation rates generally, specific to the mining industry, or specific to Sweden, may increase operating and capital expenditure costs and potentially reduce the value of future project developments. While, in some cases, such costs increases might be offset by increased selling prices, there is no assurance that this would be possible. To the extent that such offset is not possible, this could adversely impact the Company financial performance

(c) Offtake Arrangements

Talga has reached key milestones in the customer validation and sales pipeline, as outlined in the recent Quarterly Activities Report (ASX: TLG 30/10/2025). The Company has entered into a binding offtake agreement with Nyobolt (ASX:TLG 14 May 2025), a non-binding offtake term sheet with Automotive Cells Company SE (ASX:TLG 27 September 2022) and a non-binding letter of intent with EV battery manufacturer Verkor SA (Verkor) (ASX:TLG 11 January 2023) regarding the supply of graphite anode from the Company's Vittangi Anode Project in Sweden. Successful qualification and technical validations with five battery manufacturers across sectors for battery energy storage (BESS), defence, high-powered EVs, robotics and consumer electronics have confirmed product fit.

Customer pricing indications support the business case for near-term execution with initial anode quantities supplied from the EVA plant in 2026, before commencement of the 5,000 tpa commercial output. Expressions of interest now cover more than 80% of the initial 5,000 tpa capacity, with ongoing programs and negotiations underway to secure contracts on full production.

While the Company will seek to execute definitive documentation as soon as reasonably practicable, there can be no guarantee the documentation will be finalised nor certainty that the Company will be able to enter into such agreements in a timely manner, with acceptable parties, for sufficient volumes or on reasonable terms with new customers. Any of these circumstances may adversely impact the Company's financial performance and position, including the Company generating less revenue than anticipated.

Whilst the Company has successfully qualified and technically validated its battery anode material with existing customers, there will be ongoing verification and qualification processes to ensure any material produced meets the specifications for supply required by other customers (including the industrial graphite markets and the battery anode sector). The qualification process may require approval from multiple parties in the supply chain and not just those parties with whom the Company has contractual arrangements. Failure of the Company's material to qualify for purchase, or any unanticipated delay in qualifying the Company's material may adversely impact the Company's financial performance and position (including by resulting in the Company generating less revenue or profit than anticipated and/or incurring higher costs than anticipated).

(d) Licences, Permits, Processing and Approvals Risks

The Company's current and future operations are subject to receiving and maintaining licences, permits and approvals from appropriate governmental authorities. In particular, the Company will require processing, exploitation and environmental permits in Sweden from time to time in connection with mining and processing. There is no assurance that any required licences, permits or approvals will be granted or that delays will not occur in connection with obtaining or renewing the licences, permits or approvals necessary for the Company's proposed operations.

The primary permits required to enable development of the mine are an Exploitation Concession (under the Minerals Act) and an Environmental Permit (under the Environmental Code). The Company received its Environmental Permit for its commercial battery anode refinery plant to be located at Luleå in July 2023 it received a Certificate of Finality to confirm the Environmental Permit is in force. The Swedish Land and Environment Court approved the Environmental Permit (including Natura 2000) for the Nunasvaara South mine at Vittangi on 5 April 2023 and whilst it was subject to appeals, these were rejected and the Environmental and Natura 2000 permit is now officially in force. The Nunasvaara South Exploitation Concession was granted by the Mining Inspectorate of Sweden (Bergsstaten) on 17 October 2024 (ASX:TLG 18 October 2024). This was also subject to appeals which were rejected and the exploitation concession is final and in force enabling Talga to take the permit into immediate use.

Failure to obtain or renew one or more required licences, permits or approvals on a timely basis may adversely affect the Company's operations.

(e) Intellectual Property Risks

The success of the Company's graphite processing business depends, in part, on its continued ability to protect its intellectual property (IP) including trademarks to increase brand awareness, its trade secrets and patents on its products and production processes. The Company has 16 active patent families encompassing 79 active cases (28 proceeded to grant and 38 pending/under examination) that relate to processing graphite for Li-ion batteries as well as graphene products.

Given the dependence of the Company on intellectual property and the quality of its products and brands, and whilst the Company has IP management systems and processes in place, in the event that the Company is unable to protect its intellectual property adequately, then the value of the Company's products and brands could be adversely affected. This may further impact over all business, with respect to its financial position and overall profitability and operational output.

Within the industry that the anode processing business operates, there exists an ongoing risk of third parties claiming involvement in technological discoveries. The Company has taken steps to protect and confirm its interest in its intellectual property and will endeavour to implement all reasonable processes to protect its intellectual property. The Company is not aware of any third-party interests in relation to its intellectual property rights, however as stated above, the risk of third parties claiming involvement exists, which may result in litigation risks (see 'Litigation and Infringement risk' below), and there can be no assurance that the measures in place by the Company will be sufficient.

(f) Mineral and Exploration Risk

The business of exploration, project development and mining contain risks by its very nature. To prosper, it depends on the successful exploration and/or acquisition of reserves, design and construction of efficient production/processing facilities, competent operation and managerial performance and proficient marketing of the product. In particular, exploration is a speculative endeavour and certain circumstances, cost over runs and other unforeseen events can hamper exploration and mining operations.

Mining of the Vittangi deposits is currently proposed to be via conventional drill and blast (open-cut for Nunasvaara South and underground operation for Niska). The well-established mining industry in Sweden ensures good drill and blast and mining contractor capability, mobile and fixed plant supply, mining supplies and operator training and the mining project risk is considered low.

There is also a risk that unforeseen geological or geotechnical issues may be encountered when developing and mining ore reserves, such as unusual or unexpected geological conditions. As a consequence of any such event, a loss of revenue may be caused due to the lower than expected production or higher than anticipated operation and maintenance costs and/or ongoing unplanned capital expenditure in order to meet production targets.

(g) Development and Commercialisation

The Company's ability to generate revenues from its multiple anode and graphene products in the future will be subject to a number of factors, including but not limited to the technologies performing to a level sufficient to warrant commercialisation. The development, testing and manufacture of novel technologies is a high risk industry and whilst the Company has confidence in the development and results to date there is no guarantee that the Company will be able to successfully commercialise the products(including in a profitable sense).

Additionally, the Company's business depends on technology and is subject to technological change. Any failure or delay in developing or adopting new technology competitively may result in a reduction in customer demand and in turn reduced financial and operation growth. The Talga Group includes R&D departments to address these technological changes and is specifically working on next generation Li-ion batteries technologies including well advanced development plans for silicon anode.

(h) Reliance on Key Management

The responsibility of overseeing the day-to-day operations and the strategic management of the Company depends substantially on its senior management and its key personnel. Whilst the key management team has been well established with on-going stability, there can be no assurance given that there will be no detrimental impact on the Company if one or more of these employees cease their employment or are incapacitated for any length of time. Key Management have been incentivised with employment-based performance rights to mitigate this risk.

(i) Environmental and Social Impact Constraints

The Company's exploration, mining and processing activities will, in general, be subject to approval by regulatory authorities and influenced by other key stakeholders such as local communities. Development of the Company's properties is dependent on the related project following environmental guidelines and laws, and, where required, being approved by the relevant authorities. In addition to the Company's Environmental Policy, the Company has developed an Integrated Management System (IMS) to document the process for managing environmental and social risks.

Talga has secured ISO certifications according to ISO 9001:2015 QMS (Quality Management Systems), ISO 14001:2015 EMS (Environmental Management Systems) and ISO 45001:2018 OHS (Occupational Health and Safety Management Systems) for our pilot production and R&D facilities in Germany, the UK and Sweden. In addition, Talga has secured ISO 27001:2022 ISMS (Information Security Management Systems) across the Company. Talga is progressing alignment with ISO 26000, the international standard for social responsibility, which includes a Social Performance Policy and developing Social Performance systems which will provide the structure for cascading the Company's commitment to protect labour and human rights. The Company's IMS covers safe use, management and transport of chemicals, waste, and dust; safety procedures for emergencies; ongoing monitoring and auditing; and commitment and active support from leadership.

The Company is well aware of its environmental obligations across its operational activities in Germany, the UK and in particular Sweden, where there are various environmental requirements to complete and apply for an exploitation permit, and continues to monitor compliance. The Company must comply with all known standards, existing laws, and regulations in each case which may entail greater or lesser costs and delays depending on the nature of the activity to be permitted and how vigorously and consistently the regulations are administered by the local authorities. There are inherent environmental risks in conducting exploration and mining activities, or industrial materials processing, giving rise to potentially substantial costs for environmental rehabilitation, damage control and losses.

Changes in environmental laws and regulations or their interpretation or enforcement may adversely affect the Company's operations, including the potential profitability of the operations. Further, environmental legislation evolving in a manner which may require stricter standards and enforcement (with associated additional compliance costs) and expose relevant operations to the increased risk of fines and penalties for non-compliance, more stringent environmental assessment of proposed projects and a heightened degree of responsibility for companies and their officers, directors and employees. There is no assurance that future changes in environmental regulations, if any, will not adversely affect the Company's operations

(j) Community Relations

The Company's mining and graphite materials processing activities may cause issues or concerns with the local community (including local indigenous groups) in connection with, amongst other things, the potential effect on the environment as well as other social impacts relating to employment, use of infrastructure and community development.

The Company has established ongoing engagement and management programs focussed on optimising positive impacts and minimising the risk of negative impacts on the community, particularly in those parts of Sweden where the Company operates.

A stakeholder engagement plan was developed in 2017, has been implemented and continuously updated. The Company undertakes a range of community engagement activities at Vittangi, Kiruna and Luleå such as open houses, open days, community sponsorships and participation in local fairs. As described within the Stakeholder engagement plan, the Company regularly discloses information about the project development through newsletters, web-based information and direct engagement. The Company conducted (via an independent company) its first community sentiment survey in December 2021, which has since been deployed yearly to collect feedback and insights supporting ongoing activities and engagement. Talga also seeks opinions of the local communities during permit consultations and via key informant interviews. Talga has a grievance mechanism which is communicated directly to local stakeholders, by reference during public meetings, in key informant interviews, within email newsletters (through invitation for feedback) and presence in multiple sections on the Company's website. The Company invites stakeholders to contact the Company with concern, feedback or questions via its local email addresses, phone numbers or postal addresses. A Social Impact Assessment is planned with the aim to further understand impacts on local stakeholders. However, these programs do not guarantee that other issues or concerns may arise with local communities. If such issues or concerns were to arise, this may have an adverse effect on the Company's reputation and relationships with key stakeholders, which may in turn negatively impact its financial and operational performance.

However, these programs are not a guarantee that other issues or concerns will not arise with local communities. If such issues or concerns were to arise, this may have an adverse effect on the Company's reputation and relationships with key stakeholders, which may in turn negatively impact its financial and operational performance.

(k) Mineral Title Risks

Mining and exploration permits are subject to periodic renewal. There is no guarantee that current or future permits or future applications for production concessions will be approved. Permits are subject to numerous legislative conditions. The imposition of any new conditions or the inability to meet those conditions may adversely affect the operations, financial position and/or performance of the Company. Furthermore, the Company could lose title to, or its interest in, tenements if licence conditions are not met or if insufficient funds are available to meet expenditure commitments.

It is also possible that, in relation to mineral titles in which the Company has an interest or will in the future acquire such an interest, there may be areas over which legitimate rights of Indigenous groups and property owners exist. In this case, the ability of the Company to gain access to permits (through obtaining consent of any relevant Indigenous owner, body, group or landowner), or to progress from the exploration phase to the development and mining phases of operations may be adversely affected. The Company's mineral titles may also be subject to access by third parties including, but not limited to, the areas' Indigenous people and landowners. This access could potentially impact the Company's activities and/or may involve payment of compensation to parties whose existing access to the land may be affected by the Company's activities. The Company adopts a proactive approach in engagement/consultation with local Indigenous groups and landowners. The Company has successfully negotiated property rights with landowners covering the current Vittangi Project.

(l) Resource Estimates

Resource estimates are expressions of judgment based on knowledge, experience and industry practice. Estimates which were valid when originally calculated may alter significantly when new information or techniques become available. In addition, by their very nature, resource estimates are imprecise and depend to some extent on interpretations, which may prove to be inaccurate. As further information becomes available through additional fieldwork and analysis, estimates are likely to change. This may result in alterations to development and mining plans which may, in turn, adversely affect the Company's operations.

The Company engages external, independent, Competent Persons to prepare public Mineral Resource and Ore Reserve reports according to and conforming to the 2012 Joint Ore Reserves Committee (JORC) Reporting Code and Chapter 5 of the ASX listing rules. These follow standard industry guidelines on public disclosure and thus the process of determining its reserves and resources.

(m) Reserve Estimates

The Reserve estimates have been carefully prepared by an appropriately qualified person in compliance with the Joint Ore Reserves Committee (JORC) guidelines and in appropriate instances are verified by independent mining experts. Estimated valuations are dependent on market prices for the targeted ore.

(n) Commodity Price Volatility and Exchange Rate Risk

If the Company achieves success leading to mineral production, the revenue it will derive through the sale of product exposes the potential income of the Company to commodity prices and exchange rate risks. Commodity prices fluctuate and are affected by many factors beyond the control of the Company. Such factors include supply and demand for minerals, technological advancements, forward selling activities, the price and availability of substitutes, the approach to pricing by competitors (i.e. aggressive pricing at or below the cost of production), and other macro-economic factors.

Depressed graphite and/or anode prices and/or the failure by the Company to negotiate favourable pricing terms (which terms may provide for fixed or market-based pricing) may materially affect the profitability and financial performance of the Company. Any sustained low prices for graphite and/or anode (or low sale price achieved by the Company (however achieved) may adversely affect the Company's business and financial results and/or its ability to finance its current or planned operations and capital expenditure commitments.

Unlike the majority of base and precious metals, there is no internationally recognised market for graphite battery anode material nor is graphite battery anode material an exchange traded commodity; it is determined by actual transactions between buyers and sellers. As a result, there is a lack of market transparency associated with the price of graphite battery anode material. However, there are a few major independent price reporting agencies that track the graphite anode market. Given the range of factors which contribute to the price of graphite battery anode material, and the fact that pricing is subject to negotiation, it is particularly difficult for the Company to predict with any certainty the prices at which the Company will sell graphite battery anode material. The effect of changes in assumptions about future prices may include, amongst other things, changes to Mineral Resources and Ore Reserves estimates and the assessment of the recoverable amount of the Company's assets.

Furthermore, foreign exchange risk arises from future commercial transactions and recognised assets and liabilities denominated in a currency that is not the entity's functional currency. Prices of various commodities and services may be denominated in Swedish Krona, Euros or US dollars, whereas the income and expenditure of the Company are and will be taken into account in Australian currency, exposing the Company to the fluctuations and volatility of the rate of exchange between the Australian dollar and these currencies as determined in international markets. To mitigate the Company's exposure, currency rates are monitored regularly and funds are transferred to the foreign operations when rates are more favourable. The Company also plans to curtail this impact by paying foreign currency invoices in a timely fashion

(o) Pandemic Risk

Supply chain disruptions resulting from the transmission of pandemics such as COVID-19 in the community and measures implemented by governments around the world to limit the transmission of the virus may adversely impact the Company's operations, financial position, prospects and ability to raise capital. Travel bans may also lead to shortages of skilled personnel. Further outbreaks of COVID-19 or other pandemics and the implementation of travel restrictions also have the potential to restrict access to sites. .

The Company may also be subject to the severity of future lockdowns and relevant operators/supplier personnel not becoming infected which could result in delays.

(p) Access to Infrastructure Risk

Mining, processing, development and exploration activities depend, to a significant degree, on adequate infrastructure. In the course of developing future mines, the Company may need to construct and/or update existing infrastructure, which includes permanent water supplies, dewatering, tailings storage facilities, power, maintenance facilities and logistics services and access roads. Reliable roads, bridges, power sources and water supply are important determinants, which affect capital and operating costs. Unusual or infrequent weather phenomena, sabotage, government or other interference in the maintenance or provision of such infrastructure could materially adversely affect the Company's operations, financial condition and results of operations. Any such issues arising in respect of the supporting infrastructure or on the Company's sites could materially adversely affect the Company's results of operations or financial condition. Furthermore, any failure or unavailability of the Company's operational infrastructure (for example, through equipment failure or disruption to its transportation arrangements) could materially adversely affect its exploration activities or development of a mine or project.

(q) Competition

Competition from other international graphite producers and explorers may affect the potential future cash flow and earnings which the Company may realise from its Vittangi Anode Project. This includes competition from existing production and new entrants into the market. The introduction of new mining and processing facilities and any increase in competition and supply in the global graphite market could lower the price of this commodity. The Company may also encounter competition from other mining and exploration companies for the acquisition of new projects required to sustain or increase its potential future production levels. The Company's downstream operation may also be impacted by new entrants to the market, or existing graphite producers, pursuing a similar strategy.

3.2 General Risks

A summary of the major general risks are detailed below:

(a) Infrastructure

Mining, processing, development, and exploration activities depend, to one degree or another, on adequate infrastructure. Reliable roads, bridges, power sources, and water supplies, as well as the location of population centres and pools of labour, are important determinants, which affect capital and operating costs. Unusual or infrequent weather phenomena, sabotage, government or other interference in the maintenance or provision of such infrastructure could impact the Company's ability to explore its properties, thereby adversely affecting its business and financial condition.

(b) General Economic Conditions

The operating and financial performance of the Company is influenced by a variety of general economic and business conditions, including levels of consumer spending, commodity prices, inflation, interest rates and exchange rates, supply and demand, industrial disruption, access to debt and capital markets and government fiscal, monetary and regulatory policies. Changes in general economic conditions may result from many factors including government policy, international economic conditions, significant acts of terrorism, hostilities or war or natural disasters. A prolonged deterioration in general economic conditions, including an increase in interest rates or a decrease in consumer and business demand, may have an adverse impact on the Company's operating and financial performance and financial position. The Company's future possible revenues and Share prices may be affected by these factors, which are beyond the control of the Company.

(c) Volatility of Share Price

The price of the shares of resource companies tends to be volatile. Fluctuations in the world price of graphite and many other elements beyond the control of the Company could materially affect the price of the Shares of the Company.

There can be no assurance that an active market for the Shares would be sustained after any offering of securities. Securities of companies with smaller capitalizations have experienced substantial volatility in the past, often based on factors unrelated to the financial performance or prospects of the companies involved. These factors include global economic developments and market perceptions of the attractiveness of certain industries. There can be no assurance that continuing fluctuations in price will not occur. If an active market for the Shares does not continue, the liquidity of a purchaser's investment may be limited. If such a market does not develop, purchasers may lose their entire investment in the Shares of the Company.

As a result of any of these factors, the market price of the Shares at any given point in time may not accurately reflect the long-term value of the Company. Securities class action litigation often has been brought against companies following periods of volatility in the market price of their securities. The Company may in the future be the target of similar litigation. Securities litigation could result in substantial costs and damages, and also divert management's attention and resources.

(d) Risks relating to holding New Options

The Company's Share price may not exceed the exercise price of the New Options during the exercise period. In such circumstances, an Option holder is likely to let the New Options lapse without any value being realised.

The Company must issue or transfer to the Option holder one (1) Share and one Piggyback Option on exercise of an Attaching Option within 10 Trading Days of the date on which the New Option exercise took effect. There is a risk that the Company's Share price may fall below the exercise price during the period between exercise of the New Option and issue or transfer of Shares. In addition, where an Option holder exercises a New Option within 5 Trading Days of a record date for a future dividend or other corporate action undertaken by the Company, there is a risk that the Option holder may not be issued or transferred Shares until after the relevant record date for determining entitlements has passed and will therefore be unable to participate in the future dividend or other corporate action.

(e) Public Company Obligations

As a publicly listed corporate entity, the Company is subject to evolving rules and regulations promulgated by a number of governmental and self-regulated organizations, including the ASX, which govern corporate governance and public disclosure regulations. These rules and regulations continue to evolve in scope and complexity creating many new requirements, which increase compliance costs and the risk of non-compliance. The Company's efforts to comply with these rules and obligations could result in increased general and administration expenses and a diversion of management time and attention from financing, development, operations and, eventually, revenue-generating activities.

(f) Litigation and Infringement Risk

The Company may be involved in claims, litigation and disputes from time to time including in relation to contractual disputes, claims from local Indigenous groups, tenure disputes, environmental claims, occupational health and safety claims, intellectual property disputes and employee claims. Claims, litigation and disputes can be costly, including amounts payable in respect of judgments and settlements made against, or agreed to by, the Company. They can also take up significant time and attention from management and the Board. Accordingly, the Company's involvement in claims, litigation and disputes may have an adverse impact on its financial performance.

(g) Policies and Legislation

Any material adverse changes in government policies or legislation of Australia or Sweden or any other country that the Company has economic interests may affect the prospects and profitability of the Company.

(h) Force Majeure

Force majeure is a term used to refer to an event beyond the control of a party claiming that the event has occurred. Significant catastrophic events – such as war, acts of terrorism, pandemics, loss of power, cyber security breaches or global threats – or natural disasters - such as earthquakes, fires (including forest fires) or floods or the outbreak of epidemic disease – could disrupt the Company's operations and interrupt critical functions, or otherwise harm the business. To the extent that such disruptions or uncertainties result in delays or cancellations of the deployment of the Company's products and solutions, its business, results of operations and financial condition could be harmed.

(i) Taxation

The acquisition and disposal of Shares upon exercise of New Options will have tax consequences, which will differ depending on the individual financial affairs of each Investor. All potential investors in the Company are urged to obtain independent financial and tax advice about the consequences of acquiring Shares from a taxation viewpoint and generally.

(j) Technology risks

(i) (Cybersecurity Risk) The Company is exposed to the risk of cyberattacks, ransomware, and data breaches that could result in unauthorised access to sensitive information relating to the Company, its employees, customers, suppliers, or intellectual property. Such incidents may cause reputational damage, financial loss, or regulatory penalties. Policies, procedures, and practices are in place to safeguard systems and data, supported by regular monitoring, penetration testing, and compliance with recognised security standards.

(ii) (IT Systems Reliability Risk) The Company relies heavily on technology platforms to support operations. System outages, failures of legacy infrastructure, or prolonged downtime of critical applications could disrupt business processes, reduce productivity, and impact customer service. The Company maintains business continuity and disaster recovery plans and continues to invest in modernising core systems to ensure resilience and operational stability.

- (iii) (Digital Transformation & Technology Change Risk) The Company undertakes major technology transformation programs, including upgrades to enterprise platforms and the adoption of new digital tools. These projects may be delayed, exceed budget, or fail to deliver anticipated benefits, impacting operational efficiency and competitiveness. Governance frameworks, project management disciplines, and oversight by senior management are in place to mitigate these risks.
- (iv) (Third-Party Technology Risk) The Company is dependent on a range of third-party vendors and service providers, including cloud hosting, telecommunications, and software partners. A failure, outage, or cyber incident affecting these third parties could impact the Company's ability to operate effectively. Vendor risk assessments, contractual security requirements, and ongoing monitoring are undertaken to manage this risk.
- (v) (Data Governance & Privacy Risk) The Company collects and manages significant volumes of personal, operational, and commercial data. Inadequate data governance or failure to comply with privacy regulations could result in financial penalties, litigation, and reputational harm. Policies, data management frameworks, and compliance with applicable laws, including the EU General Data Protection Regulation, are maintained to ensure the security and responsible use of data.
- (vi) (Talent & Skills Risk) The shortage of skilled technology and cybersecurity professionals presents a risk to the Company's ability to protect systems, deliver transformation projects, and maintain critical services. Over-reliance on key personnel may also increase operational exposure.
- (vii) (Reputation & Trust Risk) Any significant cyber incident, technology failure, or prolonged disruption could lead to a loss of customer confidence, negative media coverage, and diminished shareholder trust. The Company recognises the importance of maintaining a strong reputation for security and reliability and continues to strengthen its controls, oversight, and communication strategies

(k) Climate change risk

Climate change is a risk the Company has considered. The climate change risks particularly attributable to the Company include:

- (i) the emergence of new or expanded regulations associated with the transitioning to a lower-carbon economy and market changes related to climate change mitigation. The Company may be impacted by changes to local or international compliance regulations related to climate change mitigation efforts, or by specific taxation or penalties for carbon emissions or environmental damage. These examples sit amongst an array of possible restraints on industry that may further impact the Company and its profitability. While the Company will endeavour to manage these risks and limit any consequential impacts, there can be no guarantee that the Company will not be impacted by these occurrences; and
- (ii) climate change may cause certain physical and environmental risks that cannot be predicted by the Company, including events such as increased severity of weather patterns and incidence of extreme weather events and longer-term physical risks such as shifting climate patterns.

Whilst all these risks associated with climate change may significantly change the industry in which the Company operates, production of Talga's flagship lithium-ion battery anode product, Talnode®-C, emits 92% less CO₂-equivalent than incumbent electric vehicle battery anode materials largely due to avoiding the use of fossil-fuel power to either produce natural graphite anode or graphitise petroleum/coal derived feedstocks for energy intensive synthetic graphite anode production, as is the case with anode technology currently imported into Europe from Asia. This emissions reduction was announced on the ASX on 9 August 2023 and is based on an independent Life Cycle Assessment.

The Company has identified air emissions and greenhouse gases in the environmental impact assessment (EIA) process for the proposed mine. Mitigation measures have been identified for reducing dust and greenhouse gas emissions. Further EIA process for the refinery which includes best available technology air emission treatment technologies, was completed in 2022

3.3 Investment Speculative

The above list of risk factors ought not to be taken as exhaustive of the risks faced by the Company or by investors in the Company. The above factors and others not specifically referred to above, may, in the future, materially affect the financial performance of the Company and the value of the New Options offered under this Prospectus. Therefore, the New Options carry no guarantee with respect to the payment of dividends, returns of capital or the market value of those New Options.

Potential investors should consider that any investment in the Company is highly speculative and should consult their professional advisers before deciding whether to apply for New Options.

4.3 Rights and Liabilities Attaching to Shares on Exercise of New Options

A summary of the rights attaching to Shares on the Exercise of New Options, is detailed below. This summary is qualified by the full terms of the Constitution (a full copy of the Constitution is available from the Company on request free of charge) and does not purport to be exhaustive or to constitute a definitive statement of the rights and liabilities of Shareholders. These rights and liabilities can involve complex questions of law arising from an interaction of the Constitution with statutory and common law requirements. For a Shareholder to obtain a definitive assessment of the rights and liabilities that attach Shares on the Exercise of New Options, in any specific circumstances, the Shareholder should seek legal advice.

(a) General Meetings

Shareholders are entitled to be present in person, or by proxy, attorney or representative to attend and vote at general meetings of the Company.

Shareholders may requisition meetings in accordance with section 249D of the Corporations Act and the Constitution.

(b) Voting Rights

him, or in respect of which he is appointed a proxy, attorney or representative, have one vote for the Share, but in respect of partly paid Shares shall have such number of votes as bears the same proportion to the total of such Shares registered in the Shareholder's name as the amount paid (not credited) bears to the total amounts paid and payable (excluding amounts credited).

(c) Dividend Rights

The Directors may from time to time declare and pay or credit a dividend in accordance with the Corporations Act. Subject to any special right as to dividends attaching to a Share, all dividends will be declared and paid according to the proportion which the amount paid on the Share is to the total amount payable in respect of the Shares (but any amount paid during the period in respect of which a dividend is declared only entitles the Shareholder to an apportioned amount of that dividend as from the date of payment). The liquidator may, with the authority of a special resolution of the Company, vest the whole or any part of any such property in trustees upon such trusts for the benefit of the contributories as the liquidator thinks fit, but so that no Shareholder is compelled to accept any Shares or other securities in respect of which there is any liability.

(e) Shareholder Liability

As the Shares issued upon exercise of the New Options under the Offers detailed in this Prospectus are fully paid Shares, they are not subject to any calls for money by the Directors and will therefore not become liable for forfeiture.

(f) Transfer of Shares

Generally, Shares are freely transferable, subject to formal requirements, the registration of the transfer not resulting in a contravention of, or failure to observe the provisions of, a law of Australia and the transfer not being in breach of the Corporations Act or the Listing Rules.

(g) Variation of Rights

Pursuant to section 246B of the Corporations Act, the Company may, with the sanction of a special resolution passed at a meeting of Shareholders, vary or abrogate the rights attaching to Shares.

If at any time the share capital is divided into different classes of Shares, the rights attached to any class (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the Shares of that class), whether or not the Company is being wound up, may be varied or abrogated with the consent in writing of the holders of three-quarters of the issued Shares of that class, or if authorised by a special resolution passed at a separate meeting of the holders of the Shares of that class.

(h) Alteration of Constitution

The Constitution can only be amended by a special resolution passed by at least three quarters of Shareholders present and voting at the general meeting. In addition, at least 28 days written notice specifying the intention to propose the resolution as a special resolution must be given.

4.4 Company is a Disclosing Entity

The Company is a 'disclosing entity' (as defined in section 111AC of the Corporations Act) for the purposes of section 713 of the Corporations Act, and, as such, is subject to regular reporting and disclosure obligations. Specifically, like all listed companies, the Company is required to continuously disclose any information it has to the market which a reasonable person would expect to have a material effect on the price or the value of the Company's securities. The Shares issued upon exercise of the New Options will be in the same class as Shares that have been quoted on the official list of the ASX during the three months prior to the issue of this Prospectus.

This Prospectus is a 'transaction specific prospectus' to which the special content rules under section 713 of the Corporations Act apply. That provision allows the issue of a more concise prospectus in relation to an offer of securities, or operation to acquire securities, in a class which has been continuously quoted by ASX in the three months prior to the date of the prospectus. In general terms 'transaction specific prospectuses' are only required to contain information in relation to the effect of the issue of New Options on the Company and the rights attaching to the New Options. It is not necessary to include general information in relation to all of the assets and liabilities, the financial position, profits and losses or prospects of the Company.

This Prospectus is intended to be read in conjunction with the publicly available information in relation to the Company which has been notified to ASX and does not include all of the information that would be included in a prospectus for an initial public offering of securities in an entity that is not already listed on a stock exchange. Investors should therefore have regard to the other publicly available information in relation to the Company before making a decision whether or not to invest.

Having taken such precautions and having made such enquires as are reasonable, the Company believes that it has complied with the general and specific requirements of ASX as applicable from time to time throughout the three months before the issue of this Prospectus which required the Company to notify ASX of information about specified events or matters as they arise for the purpose of ASX making that information available to the stock market conducted by ASX.

Information that is already in the public domain has not been reported in this Prospectus other than that which is considered necessary to make this Prospectus complete.

The Company, as a disclosing entity under the Corporations Act states that:

- (a) it is subject to regular reporting and disclosure obligations;
- (b) copies of documents lodged with ASIC in relation to the Company (not being documents referred to in section 1274(2)(a) of the Corporations Act) may be obtained from, or inspected at, the offices of ASIC; and
- (c) it will provide a copy of each of the following documents, free of charge, to any person on request between the date of issue of this Prospectus and the Closing Date:

- (ii) any documents used to notify ASX of information relating to the Company in the period from lodgement of the annual financial report referred to in paragraph (i) above until the issue of this Prospectus in accordance with the Listing Rules as referred to in section 674(1) of the Corporations Act.
